

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

REMANUFACTURING DAY

- WHEREAS: Remanufacturing is a comprehensive industrial process by which previously sold, leased, used, worn or non-functional products or parts are returned to a "like-new" or "better-than-new" condition through a controlled, reproducible and sustainable process; and
- WHEREAS: Georgia's remanufacturing industry contributes to the state's economic growth and provides meaningful employment for skilled workers, in addition to jobs outside the manufacturing sector; and
- WHEREAS: Georgia's remanufacturing industry also benefits from and drives innovation in other sectors; and
- WHEREAS: Workforce development, training and education are critical tools needed to support remanufacturers in Georgia who may face gaps in skilled labor; and
- WHEREAS: The State of Georgia is leading the way in changing outdated understandings of remanufacturing and developing new remanufacturing career pathways; and
- WHEREAS: Georgia's remanufacturing community will host events to highlight National Remanufacturing Day on April 12, 2018. These events will bring remanufacturers together to address collective challenges in the industry and showcase the economic and environmental benefits of remanufacturing; now
- THEREFORE: I, NATHAN DEAL, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim April 12, 2018, as REMANUFACTURING DAY in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 26th day of March in the year of our Lord two thousand eighteen.
